Ivan Soldo

Member of the Management Board

- Member of the Management Board since 2019
- Serving a second term since 2023

In 2023, Ivan Soldo commenced his second term as a Member of the Management Board of Hrvatska poštanska banka, with continued focus on risk management. Since the beginning of his tenure in 2019, substantial progress has been achieved in the areas under his remit, leading to the Bank attaining the strongest asset quality indicators in its history, reflected in a record-low non-performing loan ratio.

In his current role, Mr. Soldo leads the Bank's credit risk function for retail and corporate banking, with additional responsibility for strategic risk frameworks, risk control systems, and the coordination of collection strategies.

Mr. Soldo holds a Master's degree in Economics, having graduated from the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb in 2005. He pursued further executive education at IMD Business School in contemporary leadership in 2024 and in artificial intelligence and business decision-making in 2026. In 2025, he completed an INSEAD program focused on the role of supervisory boards in providing organizations with strategic direction.

Mr. Soldo began his career at KPMG Croatia in 2005. In 2011, he joined Raiffeisen Bank International in Vienna, where he served as Executive Director in charge of risk management for financial institutions and sovereign entities. He has been part of HPB's executive leadership since 2019.
