

MARIJANA VURAIĆ KUDELJAN

- Member of the Supervisory Board of Hrvatska poštanska banka

Education

She graduated in 1996 from the Faculty of Economics and Business in Zagreb and was awarded the M.Sc. degree in 2004 at the Faculty of Law in Zagreb.

Career

From 1997 to 2002, she worked at the Tax Administration, Regional Office of Zagreb, Local Office of Zelina; in 2002 she started to work in the Central Office of the Tax Administration as an administrative advisor at the Avoidance of Double Taxation and International Cooperation Department and then she worked as an administrative advisor for income tax, property and local taxes. In 2005 she was appointed head of the General Tax Law, Local Taxes and Real Estate Department. From 2009 to 2015, she was the assistant director of the Personal Identification Number Service, then in the Tax System Division and Legislative Activities and Self-Assessment Division. From January 2015, she is a deputy director in the Central Office, Director's Office.

She managed different digitalisation projects in the area of taxation. She is a member of the working group for the implementation of the tax reform. She actively participated in the work of the high level working group for taxation at the Council of the European Union during the Croatian Presidency of the Council of the European Union.

She is the member of the Supervisory Board of the Croatian Chamber of Tax Consultants.